The Acquisition of Mat Tech

Granby, Qc., January 9th. 2013. Mat Tech, Canadian manufacturer of entrance and ergonomic mats, has just been acquired by Desco Capital and members of Mat Tech management. Simultaneously, this group also acquired its American sister Company, Crown Mats & Matting. This transaction does not affect the company's relationship with its' clients, suppliers and employees.

According to Randy Dobbs, President of Mat Tech and COO of Crown Mats & Matting, Desco Capital and Mat Tech management intend to provide long-term growth by creating added value for our customers.

"Innovation, dynamism and customer service have always been key elements to Mat Tech. With strategic and financial support from Desco Capital, we will be able to solidify our position as "the" Canadian leader of entrance and ergonomic mats. In looking forward, we are very enthusiastic with our future."
